Colonel Laurence C. Brown/
Assistant Commandant
U.S. Army Intelligence School
Fort Holabird
Baltimore 19, Maryland

Dear Colonel Brown:

Mr. McCone has asked me to acknowledge and thank you very much for your letter of 5 February concerning the visit made by the members of the Military Intelligence Officer's Career Course on 25 January and 1 February.

We are highly pleased to get your generous comments about the visit and the briefing given your students. Your thoughtfulness in writing to us about this as you did is indeed appreciated and, as you requested, I will see that your letter is brought to the attention of our Support people.

Sincerely,

Assistant to the Director

5 February 1962

Mr. John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Langely, Virginia

Dear Mr. McCone:

I should like to express my appreciation to you for the courtesies extended to the Military Intelligence Officer's Career Course who visited your agency and were briefed by members of your staff on 25 January and 1 February 1962.

STAT

The consideration, resourcefulness, and willingness displayed by [redacted] of the Office of Training, [redacted] of the Office of Security, in preparing for the visit was deeply appreciated. The efforts of the instructors concerned and the understanding shown by the Deputy for Support's Staff were noteworthy. Would you please convey my thanks to them?

STAT

The briefing was considered especially helpful in detailing opposition techniques which affect the members of the intelligence community and materially contributed to the program of instruction offered our students.

It is my hope that we may include this briefing in our next Career Officer Class Program of Instruction.

Sincerely yours,

LAURENCE C. BROWN
Colonel, Infantry
